

Sigmund Freud

Freud's Beliefs...

- People are always in conflict between their _____ and the _____ that society places on them and that these drives are dramatically opposite
- Early childhood experiences (especially those with sexual connections) strongly influence adult _____ and these are the basis for many adult _____ problems

Freud's Interpretation of the Psyche

Id	Ego	Superego
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - _____ self - Biologically driven - Irrational and pleasure _____ - Avoids _____ - Does not change due to not having contact with the _____ world - Natural _____ 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - _____, rational self - Deals with the _____ and the demands of _____ - Changes and develops with different _____ - Seeks to please the id's drive in _____ ways that will benefit the long term - babies are born with an id, but an ego takes _____ to develop - Ego makes the id behave _____ 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Part of the _____ mind - Deals with _____ and _____ - Influenced by values of _____ and the people we live with - Can be thought of as a type of conscious that _____ societal misbehaviour with feelings of _____ - Critical during early childhood _____ - Works with the ego

